Tom McCoy is a lifelong fisherman who loves to fly fish for trout but also enjoys all that the saltwater has to offer from his home base on the Long Island Sound to the Florida Keys. He has fished mountain streams north, east, south and west. In this collection he shares these adventures with a lifelong friend named Mack. Sometimes you have the good fortune to meet a buddy early on and get to share your life with him. says Tom. At first its in school or on the ball field and later through correspondence. Letters at first, then email. This book is a collection of those letters on fishing, hiking and life. Tom authored his first book - How to Fly Fish for Trout: the First Book to Read - when a friend wanted to learn how to fly fish and was overwhelmed by the available instruction manuals. Too much information for a beginner was the problem. The book is written in the familiar style of these stories and truly can get a person started fly fishing for trout, (and catching), quicker than most. The Fish Tales chapter has 8 stories to help the new fly fisher digest the lessons. Letters to Mack, Book One is a continuation of those stories and more. Letters to Mack 2: Correspondence from Montana to Montauk - will follow shortly. The last book in the series is Letters to Mack 3: Correspondence from Islamorada to Pulaski which includes tarpon and steelhead adventures. It is due out in 2015. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
