Who best for young adult females to admire, to emulate, then Mary, mother of Jesus! The author envisions this reading as an evangelizing tool for teenagers. Simply written and easy to read, inner city teens will relate to Gods baby mama, Mary. Mary, mother of Jesus is meant to stir up an interest in reading and researching the Bible. Teenagers are drowning in a world of babylon, (pure confusion). Conflicting values, hippocritical role models and policies, the taking of prayer out of school, etc. has led to hopelessness, and for some depression. Teenagers are heading for disaster, (apathy, poor grades, drugs, incarcerated) when help could be right in their midst! A way to both physical and spiritual success. Will they find it?.
