Excerpt from In Memoriam, Reuben Earle Fenton Reuben earle fenton, youngest child and only son of Reuben Eaton and Elizabeth Scudder Fenton, was born at Walnut Grove, Jamestown, New York, June 12th, in the year 1865; during his father s first term as Governor of the State. Never was boy more ardently desired, or more warmly welcomed - seldom one in whom such fond hopes were centered. Of Scotch-English ancestry - he grew sturdy and strong, the pride of the Governor, the delight of his sisters, and the idol of his mother, who devoted her life to him. A young hero looked this boy of form and face of classic mold, with fearless, frank blue eyes -gifted in mind and blessed with much that life holds dear, he passed through childhood s grace, to the hopes and strifes of manhood. Studying first in the public schools, afterward with a tutor at home and while traveling with his mother in California, he was fitted for St. John s Military School at Manlius, N. Y. He early developed qualities of leadership and soon rose to the rank of captain in the school. Rev. John W. Craig, head master of St. John s, a scholar and a Christian gentleman of wide culture, made an indelible impress upon the lad s mind and character.
