

The Lame Cockerel: A Traditional Greek Fairy Tale in English and Greek (Paperback)

By MR Nicholas Vafio

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There is no royal road to learning . As the poet said, fairytales are . echoes from the very first poetry of our life. Once upon a time Greeks and other people gathered around the Mediterranean as Plato had put it: like frogs around a pond ., and so they lived and created great civilizations! One of the most original figures of our civilization is folk tales. By word of mouth and from generation to generation, they have reached us from the antiquity. We took them in our hands deferentially and we pass them on to the next generations, as tradition commands. We were born and grew up in the heart of Thessaly plains. Our grandparents used to narrate to us old fairytales for many dreamy nights. Under the light of an oil lamp, in which most of the room was under shadows instead of light, the heroes of tales were coming alive sometimes making us laugh whereas some others scared. Seven + one timeless folk fairytales from Thessaly Greece that teach us and yet bring magic to us,...
