By Roger E Walters

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Improved Hods, Techniques, and Equipment for Cleaning Eggs: Marketing Research Report Number 757 This report covers the second phase of a research project directed toward developing improved egg cleaning equipment. This phase of the project was carried out in cooperation with the University of California, Agricultural Experiment Station, at Davis. It involves field tests of an experimental egg cleaner under operating conditions in a commercial egg grading and packing plant. The experimental equipment was designed, constructed, and laboratory tested under a research contract with the University, the results of which were reported in Marketing Research Report No. 740, The Bacteriological, Chemical, and Physical Requirements for Commercial Egg Cleaning, by A. W. Brant, Phoebe Betty Starr, and John A. Hamann. Patentable features of the experimental equipment are in the process of preparation for application of patent. The tests were conducted in a typical commercial egg grading and packing plant under the direct supervision of John A. Hamann, investigations leader, Transportation and Facilities Research Division, Agricultural Research Service, an author of this report. Appreciation is expressed to the management of the egg...
