Exploring the Frozen North: An Omnibus

By Pierre Berton, Eric Wilson

Fifth House Publishers. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Exploring the Frozen North: An Omnibus, Pierre Berton, Eric Wilson, "Exploring The Frozen North" is the second omnibus in the Pierre Berton's "History for Young Canadians" series produced by Fifth House. Originally printed as separate volumes in the "Adventures in Canadian History" series, the titles in this omnibus include: "Parry of the Arctic, Jane Franklin's Obsession, Dr. Kane of the Arctic Seas," and "Trapped in the Arctic." In "Exploring the Frozen North," Pierre Berton documents the amazing lives of the men and women who mapped the Arctic at great personal cost. Berton tells the stories of the explorers, but he does not ignore the stories of those people living in the Arctic-the Inuit. Berton often remarks that if only the English and Americans had learned more about living in the far north from the Inuit people, they may have had better luck in their explorations. Retold in accurate detail, these are stories of the triumphs and the hardships of early expeditions to the Canadian Arctic. In "Exploring the Frozen North," incredible Arctic adventurers abide: William Edward Parry was the first white man to attempt exploration of the Arctic islands....
