Her five times great-grandma Zula was a beautiful, strong witch who was caught up in the madness of the witch trials. She was the only one to have been drowned, hanged, and burned at the stake - and survived it all. Her powers were passed down through the years and Zula was the strongest witch yet. However, something strange has been happening. Every time she shuts her eyes to sleep, she s pleased in ways she has never known in real life, and she doesn t know who the dream-lover is either. When her plumbing goes on the fritz, she calls a plumber, and he turns out to be the most handsome man she s ever seen. They begin dating but never once does he attempt to woo her into bed. He doesn t even attempt to kiss her beyond a chaste goodnight kiss and Zula is getting quite perturbed by the lack of affection because she can tell Connor wants her. And after a visit from great-grandma Zula and her current beau, who looks exactly like Connor, Zula begins to suspect their relationship goes much deeper than either knows. After a strange warning from grandma Zula, that leaves Zula wondering what s really going on, she winds up in a very unfamiliar place. Trussed up like a hog, Zula is tossed into a pond while the crowd chants, Witch, witch, kill the witch. As the water engulfs her, Zula holds her breath and prays for a miracle. But she s all alone and every cell in her body is gasping for air. Where is her dream lover now...
