Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.I have known James for five writing years. We met through a shared love of poetry and are members of an Irish writing group named Over the past three years, quite a few of us have met face-to-face and have even organised intensive workshops on weekends away around the country. We are all great friends, brothers and sisters in writing. For me personally, James is a modern day Joyce. James s love of his country, his belief in dignity, truth, justice, democracy and the hardship experienced by the common man, are so well expressed in this book.
