Relation to the Protestants. You will observe that they are all in Baby lon, while he (mr. C.) is out of her. Having escaped from the smoke which perpetually ascends from her idolatrous altars, his eyes after awhile became c ear, for he himself, was once a seceder, then joined the Regular Baptists; after which, he being quite a man among them, brought about a division in the church which resulted in his being the head of a party. And now in this situation, young in arty strife and small in numbers, he cries out, Come over to us on t e Lord s side lest the curse of God fall on you, ye mystic sons of Babylon. And in order that you may know whether or not you belong to Babylon, it is only to ask, Have you been immersed, for the remission of sins? And if not, Come out from her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.
