She relives her childhood growing up on the North Dakota plains, the granddaughter of immigrants and pioneers. Apparitions of the Virgin Mary and Jesus to members of her family, and her own encounter with the White Light, inspire her to rise above overwhelming challenges. A major automobile accident changes her destiny when she dies on the operating table and makes a promise to the White Light in exchange for additional life and is resurrected on Easter Sunday. Severe injuries cripple her right side, and she is scarred for life after going through the windshield. She heals herself becoming a living, medical miracle. Nadine suffers retrograde amnesia from the auto accident and does not remember that she is engaged to her first love, Perry, instead, she believes she is with another high-school sweetheart, Don. She is unable to distance herself from her dysfunctional family. She marries her best friend s brother to avoid being murdered by him. After an incident of domestic violence, forced to hide from him, unable to hold a regular job, she earns a living gambling and dancing until the marriage is annulled. She marries Don so he can avoid the Vietnam draft. The government changes the rules so he is drafted. She works three jobs to pay-off their bills. She joins Don in Germany and works for the United States Army for the second in command. Nadine and Don divorce after returning to the USA. She...
