Flame Projects, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I couldn t put it down! William, aged 12. Loved it. Billy, aged 10. What a fantastically gripping middle-grade story about a young boy and his exploits in a beautiful enchanted garden. The story was full of mystery and magic, with just enough suspense to keep me on the edge of my seat. I could easily visualise George s garden and his many friends he made there. I loved his relationship with Aunt Di and the evil witch certainly made me shiver! A great story and an enjoyable read. I think this has the makings of an exciting series. Mary Anne Yarde, author of The Du Lac Chronicles. Recurring nightmares, a strained relationship with his father, and threatening behaviour from the Fearsome Foursome at school would be challenging for most boys his age. But as an only child with a sensitive, artistic soul, George feels especially alone and ordinary. When he spends an awesome holiday with his zany Aunt Di, a painter, he stumbles across several exciting secrets. Aunt Di s London garden contains statues of a Gargoyle, a Griffin, a Unicorn and a Dragon. At first, George thinks of these as just ordinary statues of mythical creatures. But what if they are not? And what about Roy, the robin? Will George survive the adventure when the Witch turns out to be real? Will his life ever be the same again after his magical experiences?.
