

The Moral Education of School Children (Paperback)

By Charles Keen Taylor

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book is a new departure. It is not a theoretical discussion of the subject of Moral Education of Children. To one who loves to peruse a discussion of the training of an imaginary child under impossible conditions, the book will prove a disappointment. The author is a trained psychologist and tells in a plain, straight-forward manner, of the efforts he has made to develop the moral character of some real school children in Philadelphia. Realizing that the church is reluctantly admitting its inability to meet the situation and that the modern home is more or less incapable of solving the problem, the author believes that the public school is forced, by the conditions of modern life, to assume the responsibility of the child s fundamental moral training. He recognizes three forms of moral conduct: political morality, commercial morality and private morality. Mr. Taylor outlines the methods necessary to attain the three forms of morality. For example, he tells of the work of the Thomas Wood School, which selected a few rooms in a representative tenement house in its neighborhood and...
