It s hard for all couples, but especially challenging for those who think and feel differently. When we are dating, the love hormones make us blind. But once those wear off, our true personality traits, beliefs, and ways of expressing ourselves as well as all the baggage we grew up with truly start interacting and the results may not always be positive. It is heartbreaking to see two people going from I can t live without you to I can t be in the same room with you. It s especially heartbreaking when there are kids involved. These kids entire world crumbles when their parents fight and even worse when they get a divorce. In a very short, succinct, and friendly format, this book gives you the insight and actionable steps on how to rethink those differences, turn them into assets, and mediate the irreconcilable ones not only to avoid divorce, but to actually grow and enjoy your marriage.
