Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: .milk to have 3.5 per cent of fat, but the health officer says that it is impossible to enforce this provision of the law because, as he claims, the climate makes it impossible to produce milk with this percentage of fat. The writer has seen nothing in the South that would lead to the belief that the climate affects the fat content of the milk. In fact, all evidence gained from a number of sources goes to show that milk richer in butter fat is produced in the South, as a rule, than in the North. The peculiar type of cow found around Jacksonville and common to all the Southern pine lands may or may not produce milk of average composition. No evidence on this question is obtainable. Part of the milk sold in the city is bottled and part of it is cooled, but...
