By Hoffman, Andrew J.; Hoffman, Catherine A.

Heinle & Heinle Publishers, Inc., U.S.A., 2001. Trade Paperback. Condition: Brand New. First Edition. Brand new and unread first edition; very fresh and bright condition; gift quality! Green and white illustrated wrapper with green lettering. 151 new and unread informative and educational pages! "A Thousand Words: Grammar and Writing in Context is a textbook that grew out of the experience of watching students do excellent work in grammar workbooks and then fail to translate that success to their own writing. The trouble was that many textbooks aimed at low-level developmental writing students either emphasize grammar at the expense of writing, or they attempt to move students into writing before they have sufficient technical competence." -----
