

Healing Force (Paperback)

By Robert McCauley

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Healing Force is a novel of adventure and mystery, set in the American Southeast. It depicts the discovery deep in the woods of Tennessee of a hermit with prodigious healing powers. The action is seen through the eyes of Harrigan McCall, a fifty-something engineer at a major aerospace corporation who develops computerized war-gaming systems that are used to train US Army officers in the art of high-tech battle. The story is told how McCall, while going through a period in his life where he is overcome by the onslaught of the negative aspects of growing old, becomes enchanted with the sport of rock climbing. He meets a famous rock climber, Steve Black, who is well known for climbing the most virgin cliffs and gets involved in the sport when he discovers an unclimbed cliff deep in a Tennessee thicket. McCall persuades Black to go to Tennessee to make the climb, and during this climb, the famous climber falls and breaks his back. Trying to get help, the climbing party accidentally finds a cabin occupied by a hermit where they leave Steve Black while...
