Audible Studios on Brilliance, 2017. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. From the acclaimed literary biographer of Kurt Vonnegut and Harper Lee comes the life story of a song, one of the most iconic ever written: John Lennon s Imagine. Twenty-two lines of graceful, plain-spoken faith in the power of a world to repair and change itself, said Rolling Stone. Only 183 seconds long, the simple melody and poetry captured the wounded hopefulness of its moment - and transcended its time to inspire generations that followed. Charles J. Shields traces the song s origins - from the fire-bombing of Tokyo during Yoko Ono s youth to the violent death of Lennon s mother during his adolescence, from Lennon s post-Ed Sullivan skepticism to John and Yoko s Bed-Ins of 1969 - and unearths the secrets of its lasting import. If music can change the world, Imagine came as close as any song might. This is its story.
