But to author Wipey and her sisters, he was Uncle. In My Experiences of a Great Man, Wipey pays tribute to this man who played an important role in her life. In this memoir, she discusses her uncle s life---His birth in 1928, his early years, his education, his family, his failing health, his eventual death, and the great impact he had on others. Writing as a way of coping and healing after Uncle s death, Wipey narrates the lessons she gleaned from him about living a life to the fullest, sharing love, and helping others in big and small ways. The reminiscences included in My Experiences of a Great Man help recapture the positive memories of a man who meant so much to so many.
