

What Are We Then to Do? (Paperback)

By Joseph B Theranger

On Demand Publishing, LLC-Create Space, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It has been said that England and the United States are two countries divided mainly by a common language. It turns out that, over the centuries, Christianity has experienced that same kind of thing. It is a faith that has been divided into many parts mainly by a common sacrament, Baptism. On the first Pentecost Sunday, men who had just hours before were hiding together in a room afraid for their lives suddenly burst into the crowds of Jewish believers that had come to Jerusalem to celebrate Shavu ot and preached out loud for all to hear the good news of Jesus Christ. The crowds were stunned. Many had traveled to Jerusalem from foreign lands yet they claimed to have heard the Apostles of Jesus preaching to them not only in Hebrew, not only in Aramaic, not only in Greek. The Apostles seemed to be speaking in the multitude of native languages of the lands from which they had traveled. In whatever language the Apostles were speaking, they explained to their listeners that Jesus was the Promised One of God. It...
