Brighton Publishing LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Graduating from high school is tough. Imagine graduating from high school when you believe you re reincarnated from your great-great uncle and the love of your life has been dead. .for over 100 years. Wills Harrington, recently of Eton College, is trying to find himself-both his past and present self-during his gap year in Rouen, France. Why Rouen? That s where his great-great uncle died during World War I. The great-great uncle Wills believes, well, that he s quite possibly him or something like that. Wills dreams about a beautiful nurse-he s trying to find her too. Charlie Longley, a senior in high school from St. Louis, Missouri convinces her friends to join her at a study abroad program in Rouen. Why Rouen? That s where Charlie can explore her interest in World War I while learning French. Simple enough. Charlie starts dreaming about a hot, dead guy. She assumes he s dead because he s a soldier from World War I; and, if he s not dead, he d be super old. Charlie s dreams of World War I feel like memories. .and they start messing with her head. Charlie and Wills meet and it s electric.really electric; Charlie gives off a shock that literally knocks Wills off his feet. Charlie and Wills try to reconnect in the 21st century while dealing with frenemies, a stalker, and their electric connection as they hunt for a WWI treasure. And they need to get the whole mess figured out before Charlie heads back to the States.
