Chinese Short Stories (Paperback)

By William Dolby

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book contains Twenty-two distinctly different yet historically and culturally themed translations of Chinese short stories that span 2000 years of ancient culture to life in the last century. These amazing translations stretch from The House of Kou-chien, King of Yueh by Ssu-ma Ch ien (147 BC-ca. 90 BC) to The Neighbours by Lao She (1899-1966). Some of these tales were originally translated and presented in the book titled A Perfect Lady by Mistake by William Dolby but now have been added to and expanded upon in this current volume; more stories, greater depth. China has a rich tradition, through the ages, of superbly plotted, highly imaginative and vivid world-quality short stories. This anthology presents but a few, from 100 or so BC up to modern times, including some tales that have been seminal for other forms of literature and entertainment. Here are the noble and the dastardly, paragons of friendship, a tiger of honour, a most base bandit, a dragon king, tragedy born of a joke, China s most famous poet, the most renowned tale of mighty vengeance, a...
