RESEARCH & REVIEWS IN CLINICAL MICROBIOLOGY: BACTERIAL VIRULENCE

LAP Lambert Academic Publishing Nov 2017, 2017. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - The potential of clinical microbiology as a subject cannot be defined in a single paragraph. Role of a clinical microbiologist in patient care assumes greater significance in recent times owing to many factors. First among the reasons include the menace of antimicrobial drug resistance. Global spread of microorganisms' resistant to most of the antibiotics commonly used should be considered as an alarming sign in health care profession. Microorganisms have long been evolving mechanisms to counter human defenses and be successful in establishing infections. Only with keen interest and continuous investigation, that a microbiologist could predict microbial behavior and be successful in providing better patient care. This book is a compilation of research communications related to clinical microbiology and patient care. This is a conscious attempt intended for enlightening young and budding clinical microbiologists, providing them a good idea about the various types of research and scientific communications in clinical microbiology. 124 pp. Englisch.
