

The Last Drop

By Christopher Creed

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 366 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Rashad and Ali are brothers from a poor family in the Gulf island state of Dubat, they first inherit the bicycle repair shop from their father who is killed when he falls asleep on a nearby beach - its a long story. . . The brothers later acquire a strip of land from their terminally idle, uncle Hilaal, who is tragically killed whilst trying to cool off during a particularly ferocious heatwave. Ali, the younger of the two brothers, wants to be an airline pilot, but he has too much work keeping the family going and together to even think about any other form of career path. Rashad has learnt English by watching 1970s police series, The Sweeney and fancies himself as the incarnation of Inspector Jack Regan, seizing each and every opportunity to exercise his own brand of cockney rhyming slang and dubious English language skills. All is pretty much ordinary in the brothers lives, until one day, in an uncharacteristic burst of energy, Rashad takes up the work on an abandoned water well, started by uncle Hilaal years...
