Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An early morning phone call from a gruff stranger begins a string of events that drive Suzanne Moss, cofounder of Secure Homes, a technology company, to cross the globe in an attempt to keep her family safe while preventing the theft of her company s proprietary microchip, an important component to a revolutionary healthcare station. The mother of a preteen son and daughter, Suzanne tries to be an attentive parent while running a $2 billion company that counts national and global corporations, and several small countries as clients. She and her husband, Leonard, a fast-track Wall Street attorney, have built a life sharing responsibilities for their growing children. Yet, as pressure to locate the thieves increase, Suzanne suddenly realizes that her husband has been absent from their lives. At first she feels Leonard s indifference is her fault. If she had spent more time paying attention to his needs, he wouldn t be leaving her alone evenings or forcing her to handle all the details of their daily lives. She misses his presence, and his help dealing with their children. Mostly, she misses his affection. Suzanne s business partner, Bradley Stanton II with secrets of his own, is uniquely qualified to help Secure Homes crush the mysterious threat to their company. A former member of the Special Forces, Brad, working with the strange caller, masterminds a plan to thwart the theft. Together they uncover an Asian black market ring and in the process uncover Leonard Moss s treachery as a husband and father. Supporting Suzanne throughout the latest difficulties in her business and family life, are fashion designer Darcey Manning and popular romance novelist Grace St. James. Darcey...
