OF COLLEGE DRAMATICS Editors Note: Madame Petrova when interviewed by J. D. Holtzermann and Angus M. Smith, at her recent visit in this city, stressed many important points in regard to the drama and University dramatics, in relation to the thoughts and life of the community. the broad sense, affects the thought and life of the community. Every one in college would be greatly benefited by participation in dramatics. Perhaps the most conspicuous merits of such activity are the development of the proper attributes of speech, and the pleasing qualities of voice. What is, no doubt, of greater importance, is the acquirement of ability to manifest poise upon all occasions. In this respect, the benefits of dramatic training are evidenced in daily life. In this aspect alone, University dramatics will have fulfilled a purpose. Madame Petrova is very decidedly of the opinion, that all members of...
