Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 208 x 8 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.If dogs could talk, we d all find their curious ways much easier to understand and would be better able to unleash all the love a dog is so eager to share. Now, author and poet Faith Walston draws on her rich experience with finding, training, and caring for her beloved rescue dogs, and shares her insight to help others tap into the enriching experience of sharing their lives with a pet. This series of poems is rich in pearls of pet-care wisdom, as well as poignant stories of how the author came by her delightful pets. You ll also read eye-opening explanations on curious habits including why dogs dig, chase their tails, and much more. An inspiring learning tool that is as boundless in enthusiasm as a happy puppy, it will warm the heart of readers of all ages who love dogs and want to help those who are particularly in need. It tells of the immeasurable rewards of love when it s offered full and without reservation. Because as much as we rescue these wonderful dogs and cats, they ve also been known to rescue us in ways we can only begin to imagine. This book is about author Faith Walston s personal experience with her rescue dogs, and what she has learned by truly loving them and being interested in their well-being. ***A percentage of all proceeds from the sale of this book will go to help animals in need.
