Scientific Essay from the year 2015 in the subject Politics - International Politics - Region: USA, grade: A, Hamline University, course: Reform Movements in America, language: English, comment: This paper recieved the prostegious Gilder Lerhman History Scholar Award in 2014. , abstract: This paper analyzes the root of anti-immigration sentiments that existed in the Progressive Era, and the struggle that took place over the immigration question between immigration proponents and anti immigration reformists. The paper keens in on the US Immigration Commissions role in the debate. This paper argues that the Immigration Commissions anti-immigrant bias in its reports compelled congress to pass the most sweeping immigration restrictionist policies in the history of the United States. The passage of these laws symbolized the victory of anti-immigration reformists over immigration proponets of the Progressive Era. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
