Kalynn Campbell, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Poems and prose of unrequited love and loneliness. Take an emotional ride with the vulnerable heart of artist/writer, Kalynn Campbell, as it enters the tempestuous and callous world of She. Written at the end of a volatile love affair with a married woman, the poems and prose of SHE OF THORN tells the story of a love-in-vain enslavement to a cruel ineffectual heart. The poems also reflect Campbell s lonely struggle with AvPD, a form of self isolation. To immerse oneself in the She poems is to bathe in a tormenting ache of unrequited love, only to dry-off with the stark cavernous void of inner loneliness. Best described as Leonard Cohen meets Shel Silverstein , Campbell s work is as moving and thought provoking as it is whimsical and lyrical.
