Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Report of Program Activities National Cancer Institute, Fiscal Year 1979, Vol. 5: Division of Cancer Research Resources and Centers By the beginning of the fiscal year 1979, as a result of reorganizing the National Cancer Institute (NCI), all of the regular research grant programs had been transferred from the Division of Cancer Research Resources and Centers (DCRRC) to other Divisions of the Institute. Responsibility for all peer review of grants and research contracts had been transferred from other Divisions of the Institute to DCRRC. In addition, DCRRC had accepted responsibility for activities related to supporting and interacting with the National Cancer Advisory Board (NCAB). The Division continued to administer grants management and grants financial management, as well as reporting and analysis activities. The Division also continued the administration of the Organ Site Programs, the Construction Program, and Clinical and Research Manpower Programs. The continuance of the latter programs in DCRRC was a temporary arrangement to provide stability while other transfers were being assimilated and to provide time to consider the proper organizational setting for them. In April 1979, the Director of NCI announced tentative plans to initiate a second phase of the Institutes reorganization. This second phase of reorganization would remove the Centers Program from the Office of the Director, NCI; would remove Organ Site, Manpower, and Construction Programs from DCRRC; and would combine these Programs with major elements of Cancer Control in a new Division. The Director also indicated tentative plans to create a Division of Prevention. As fiscal year 1979 draws to a close, plans to implement this second phase of reorganization are being formulated. Since the anticipated changes have not been accomplished, this annual report includes the programs...
