While the few friends she had went on dates, Ember was required to train in the art of fencing, hunting, and survival. Every day had been just as boring and hopeless as the last until he showed up, shortly before her 18th birthday. Asher was as breathtaking as he was mysterious from the moment she first laid eyes on him at the cabin; the same day the white wolf stalked her in the woods. After surviving the first of many assassination attempts to come, Ember discovers the legendary world of The Ancients is no more a myth than Asher's arrival a coincidence. Assigned as her protectors, Asher and Asmund reveal the calling fated to her, of saving the Realms from the wrath of Soren, the Dark Prince. If she chooses to accept her calling, war is inevitable and everyone closest to Ember will be a target for Soren's rage. Fate and love collide when Ember is forced to choose between the guy of her dreams and saving the human race in this dystopian tale.
