Excerpt: . I will mention the friends that I have here that you may form an idea of our situation. Mrs Williams and I live together. We have one purse, and joined in misery we are for the present joined in life. The poor girl withers like a lily. She lives for her children but it is a living death. Lord Byron has been very kind. But the friend to whom we are eternally indebted is Trelawny. I have, of course mentioned him to you as one who wishes to be considered eccentric, but who was noble and generous at bottom. I always thought so, even when no fact proved it: and Shelley agreed with me as he always did, or rather, I with him. We heard people speak against him on account of his vagaries; we said to one another, Still we like him;...

Reviews

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
