Leonaaur Ltd, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A great lady traveller s best known work Isabella Bird was born in 1831 in Cheshire, England became one of a distinguished group of female travellers famous in the nineteenth century-a time when it was considered that a lady s place should be confined to the home. Isabella travelled and explored the world extensively and became a notable writer and natural historian. This book, her fourth and arguably both her best and best known, concerns a journey of 800 miles through the Rocky Mountains. Isabella made the trip on horseback, using a conventional saddle. The American west was still wild in 1873 and Isabella s accounts of the landscape and its frontier s folk are important historical records. Particularly interesting is her relationship with her dear desperado, the justifiably named Rocky Mountain Jim Nugent who was shot dead a year after their acquaintance. Leonaaur editions are newly typeset and are not facsimiles; each title is available in softcover and hardback with dustjacket; our hardbacks are cloth bound and feature gold foil lettering on their spines and fabric head and tail bands.
