SOULS FOR SALE (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 410 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in.Excerpt from Souls for SaleLos Angeles! the sneering preacher cried, as Jonah jight have whinnied, Nineveh! and with equal scorn. The Spanish missionaries may have called it the City of Angels; but the moving pictures have changed its name to Los Diablos! For it is the central factory of Satan and his minions, the enemy of our homes, the corrupter of our young men and women - the school of crime. Unless it reforms - and soon! - surely, in Gods good time, the ocean will rise and swallow it!Though he was two thousand miles or more away - as far away, indeed, as the banks of the Mississippi are from the Californian shore - the Reverend Doctor Steddon was so convinced by his own prophetic ire that he would hardly have been surprised to read in the Monday mornings paper that a benevolent earthquake had taken his hint and shrugged the new Babylon off into the Pacific sea. But of all follies, next to indicting nations, cursing cities is the vainest. And Los Angeles lived on, quite unaware that its crimes were being denounced in the far-off town of Calverley. The sun itself took two hours to make the trip, and though it was black night outside the little church in Calverley, it was just sunset in Los Angeles. There was scarlet fire along the ocean of oceans, whose lazy waves stroked the coast with lakelike calm. Over the wide-sprawded city was a smooth sky all of a banana yellow, save for a stain of red grapes at the hem where the sky went down behind the sea wall of the Santa Monica Mountains.
