Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fishing all day, fishing all night, fishing for trout in Scotland for two whole weeks! This adult adventure comedy is surely an angler's dream as three fishing pals start travelling north on their regular game fishing trip. Every summer for fifteen years Arthur, Henry and Brian hire the same log cabin by the side of a Scottish loch. It's goodbye to the routine lifestyle of home and hello to a holiday fling. The world is their oyster now. For fourteen days they relax and enjoy the fishing humour and friendship they find in each other's company. But this year is different. In a log cabin just yards from their own are some unexpected neighbours. Joyce, Susan and Jessica have come for the fly fishing too, and are looking for humour and entertainment (and maybe some adult adventure) for the same two weeks they are there. They don't have to look too far, and they don't have to wait too long. Our three lucky lads don't waste any time before suggesting a fishing match. It's a challenge the girls can't resist and with fishing bags at the ready they set out to show their neighbours how professional they can be. They are also good at barbecues and mixing a drink or two as the lads find out in the first few days of what looks like a promising holiday! Further matches are planned but fate has other ideas. With three lovely women as playmates what started out as innocent fun has had an effect on the men. As relationships form and gather speed the men are enjoying this brand new life and thinking...
