Reviews

This ebook is worth acquiring. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of your own time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).

(From Fragments of Tariff Discussion.1847.) The Abandonment of Protection Would Produce Want and Ruin. The abandonment of the Protective policy by the American Government must result in the increase of both useless labor and idleness, and so, in proportion, must produce want and ruin among our people. (From Fragments of Tariff Discussion. 1847.) The Famous Epigram. Abraham Lincoln s first speech on the Tariff question was short and to the point. He said that he did not pretend to be learned in political economy, but that he thought he knew enough to know that When an American paid twenty dollars for steel to an English manufacturer, America had the steel and England had the twenty dollars. But when he paid twenty dollars for steel to an American manufacturer, America had both the steel and the twenty dollars. That was the sum and substance of the Tariff question as he viewed it. (Editorial in the Harvard Independent of Harvard, 111., of June 9, 1894, written by Otis S. Eastman.) Had Not Changed His Views in 1859. I was an old Henry Clay Tariff Whig. In old times I made more speeches on that subject than any other. I have not since changed my views. (Letter from Abraham Lincoln to Dr. Edward Wallace, October 11, 1859.) He Stood for the Republican Platform of 1860. In the Chicago platform there is...
