Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Bohemians in Central Kansas Lansing no one could be hired to haul the party west, about fifty miles, so lthe baggage had to be stored and the party started on foot. We followed a wagon track, according to directions given my father, who was the guide 1 and interpreter for the party on the whole way from home in Ceske Vlasti. He was the only one who could speak German, and he was able to find Ger mans everywhere thus far. But on our second night s lodging in a primitive little log cabin, and they were scarce, he found good people that he could not talk with, .as we had struck the Norwegian settlement, but they under stood our wants all right. They were a white-haired but a warm-hearted people - those Norsk. Waking up in the morning, we found snow covering the ground, and made our first footprints in snow in America, November 1, 1854. And so the summer was spent, and with it our small capital, in travel in g over the greater part of the civilized world to land in the wilderness. A great change of circumstances wrought in half a year s travel! As it was too late for each family to dig itself a habitation in the hillside as the Norwegian settlers had done, several families combined to build a house out of slabs bought from a rude and primitive sawmill on Turkey river. Uncle had bought a yoke of oxen and an old wagon to haul the slabs and get the baggage left at the river s landing. He built a stable of split rails and old dead grass for hay, but winter was...
