

St. Paul Meets St. James! (Paperback)

By Charles W Schaefer

Xulon Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Because of the Apostle Paul s dramatic testimony concerning the after-effects of his conversion- Immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood (Galatians 1:16)-unknown to many of us is the fact that he did subsequently make two purposeful and seminal visits to two giants of Christianity, Simon Peter and James, author of our Book of James (Galatians 1:18-19). Instead of understanding the Apostle Paul solely as the mysterious Christ-mystic receiving multiple revelations from God in the Arabian desert, this book considers him also as a developing mentality from the Christian-humanistic perspective, that is, as a man jostled by others who like himself had beheld the Son of God, most significantly, one whom we regard as his diametric opposite-James, the brother of the Lord and apostle of works. Surprising influences of James outlook and writings show up in Paul s subsequent thought. Paul in this book is studied as he is seldom discussed in our churches-meeting with many kinds of mentalities far and wide and impacted by everyone he encountered, especially James. Charles W. Schaefer, disciple and humanist, spent his earlier years as a...
