Since on average AUSAs remain with the Department for only 8 years, these early departures represent a critical loss of litigation skill and experience to the Government. Frankly, the larger United States Attorneys Offices have, in effect, become a Government-financed training ground for the litigation divisions of large law firms. Equally important, the costs of the legislation proposed can be satisfied by the collections reform proposals that will improve DOJ's ability to collect restitution and judgments and increase Federal revenues. Mr. Chairman, in conclusion, the significant challenges facing Federal prosecutors are surmountable with appropriate funding at the district level. We believe that NAAUSAs legislative proposal can and ought to be a substantial part of the remedy. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, for your leadership and support on each of these fronts. Chairman G. Thank you for your associations support, RAHAM...
