Reviews

It is one of the best books. Indeed, it really is a play, nevertheless an amazing and interesting literature. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

The results In members converted seem disproportionate to the labors expended. This brings in review the obstacles to successful preaching Which the missionary encounters at every step in his round. First, the preaching-place - vthicli is the sugar house, some vacant quarter, the cooper s shop or half-out-of-doors in the hall of a double log cabin, intact any place not otherwise occupied, Where room can be made in a harry by piling the rubbish all around and leaving a bare spot in the center, for the congregation. Which would all be ample enough m a time of persecution to a church glad to catch the Gospel as they might; but to the negro, in a time of profound peace, Who has all his notions of religion laid In some old Virginy meeting-house, With its regular altar and pulpit and gallery, such an extemporising a house of God out of evexy-day materials seems no doubt a violent unfitness to the gospel - old Wine in new bottles.
