

Provided: The God Who Walks in the Middle of Your Need (Paperback)

By Cornelius Quek

Whitaker House, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Jehovah Jireh. God provides. But how? For whom? And, most urgently, when? Trust in God is an easy catchphrase for believers, but Dr. Cornelius Quek claims that many Christians haven't actually experienced what it means to actively, wholeheartedly, uncomplainingly give their financial security and daily needs to God. For anyone in need who cognitively knows that God provides financially but lacks experiential proof, this book presents the opportunity to understand God's care in a whole new light while being inspired by Cornelius's own testimonies of God's miraculous provision. Dr. Cornelius goes beyond superficial speculation about God and money to prove that the key to our provision is in the past: God doesn't just provide--He has already provided. From heaven's perspective, provision is a done deal. It's the Christian's current reality, not just a good idea for the future. The biblical keys, prayers, and declarations in each chapter will enable believers to experience God's provision for themselves, right here, right now.
