Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It s hard not to love innocent, young, impressionable Rick Jr. At 10-years-old, he s craving attention and validation from those who are harming him the most. This short snippet of Rick Jr. s life details the trauma he faces as a young boy growing up in rural North Carolina with his single mother, Deborah. In many ways, Deborah s preoccupation with her faith doesn t allow her to realize what her son is experiencing, and even if she were to, she might not have the propensity to intervene in a way that might be helpful. This leaves Rick Jr. in a very precarious place as a young man who is navigating life poor, Black, and fatherless.
