Members of the Real Estate Rescue Network Team are advocates for individuals and families with distressed properties. Through our experience and extensive training, and that of our strategic partners, we support homeowners as they deal with challenges during this unprecedented time in real estate history. Our network's goal is to educate homeowners and help them explore every option available so they can make informed decisions regarding their futures. Having a network of competent professionals who are dedicated to seeing homeowners weather the storm with dignity, integrity, independence and without abuse, neglect, and exploitation is where we start. Beginning with the goal of home retention we evaluate a number of aspects, including a comparative market analysis of homes in the area, expert opinions of the future of the real estate market, and the homeowner's current and projected financial situation. If it is not possible to keep the homeowner in their home or they feel it is more financially prudent to move on, our trained real estate professionals endeavor to facilitate a short sale to preserve the quality of the homeowner's credit. After a Realtor(r) has found a buyer for the home our experts handle all negotiations with the servicer on the homeowner's behalf. If it is necessary for the homeowner to move, we assist by recommending other qualified professionals to aid in the transition. But, we don't stop there. Looking to the future we suggest families begin working immediately with our credit repair experts, so that when the market shifts to a more favorable position they are ready to buy a home again. We don't...
