A Decade of Love: The Power of Family Love

By Joyce Jean Jones Brown

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 344 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 7.5in. x 0.7in. This book is a small glimpse into the lives of a blended family who, despite their differences, love each other deeply. It is interesting to note that nosey Granny has no blood relationship to any of her family. She was an adoptive Mom of one son, and a step-Mom to four children, two boys and two girls. However, the love connection to her family is a powerful one. The nosey, slightly peculiar, well-meaning Granny wants to participate in the process of her 12 Grandchildren (seven boys, five girls) becoming adults. Hard to do when they are living in all parts of the U. S. , plus Brazil and Japan. Her solution: Snail mail, e-mails and yes, even texting. Facebook and Skype help. Her face is recently popping up on Facetime. Technology is killing her. Her printer only works part time. If not for 13 year old Gage, one of her 9 Great Grandchildren and 25 year old Joyce, the youngest of the 12 adult grandchildren helping her when her computer just stops for no earthly reason, this book could never have been written. The truth is...
