GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Condition: New. 66 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.2in. Bachelor Thesis from the year 2004 in the subject Business economics - Investment and Finance, grade: 68 (1, 7), Dublin Institute of Technology, 50 entries in the bibliography, language: English, comment: This dissertation examines the critical importance of foreign direct investment in the growth of Ireland. It explains the reasons for Irelands success and identifies the key steps in the history. The analysis is carried out in terms of the role of the Irish government policy in promoting foreign direct investment. Without the influence of foreign direct investment inflows, the economy would not have grown to the extent as it has. , abstract: This dissertation examines the critical importance of foreign direct investment in the growth of Ireland. It explains the reasons for Irelands success and identifies the key steps in the history. The analysis is carried out in terms of the role of the Irish government policy in promoting foreign direct investment. Without the influence of foreign direct investment inflows, the economy would not have grown to the extent as it has. This paper will also show how important foreign direct investment is for the Irish economy in the future. The paper describes several theories about foreign direct investment. It addresses the advantages and disadvantages. More in depth this paper investigates the determinants of financial services sector investments abroad. It will also be shown how the Industrial Development Authority as an agency and the International Financial Services Centre contributed to Irelands success. The example Hypo Real Estate Bank International illustrates how an investment in Ireland succeeded. This paper should attract readers with an interest in the Irish history and economy, in the role of foreign direct investment for a countrys economy, or in financial services sector investments...
