CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 198 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. Boo! Turn up the lights and sit down to read more true ghost tales from the extensive collection of diaries T. M. Simmons kept over the years of her paranormal investigative career. Things do seem to go bump in the night when Simmons and her aunt prowl a haunted house or cemetery during both dark and full moons. Its a scary Halloween all year round for this ghost hunter and her readers. In St. James Jeepers Creepers Simmons takes us to the extremely haunted St. James Hotel in Cimarron, New Mexico, where she and her aunt were given free access for two full nights of haunted chills and fun. The Making of Barney the Believer tells how her staid engineer husband grew to believe in the paranormal. Readers who follow Simmons will recall the problematic portal in a friends house. That Pesky Portal is, hopefully, the conclusion of this saga. In the spring of 2012, she and her aunt finally managed to tour the haunted Prospect Place in the tiny village of Trinway, Ohio. Possibilities of Prospect Place relates their experiences there. Simmons always includes a scary tale, and Hot Springs Heart Attack (Almost) wont fail in that regard. One day maybe Simmons will find out what evil entity tried to share her bed, but its not high on her priority list. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
