

Evensong

By M. L. St. Sure

Booksurge Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 225 pages. Growing up on a poor farm in Missouri, and learning how to sing opera from her war-scarred father, young Christina Cross has no idea the powerful forces of good and evil, of music and war, will one day pull her into the maelstrom of World War II, compelling her to make life-or-death decisions about who she is fighting for in her life, and the price she is willing to pay. Like a masterful opera, EVENSONG deftly transports the reader to early 1940s Paris, where Christina and her sister, Nicolette, go to live with their grandfather, Philippe Petain. As the Premier of France, he orders her to sing for and entertain Hitler and other high-ranking Nazi thugs, not realizing she has been recruited by French underground leader Laurent de Gauvion Saint Cyr, who falls in love with her. Christina refuses to comply with her grandfathers order which angers Hitler, leading to the imprisonment of Nicolette. Laurent tries to free Nicolette but then learns Christina has been apprehended and given to one of the angry Nazi officials who delights in torturing his victims. Facing death, Christina is forced to sing for her captor,...
