By Noreen Hyde

Dog Ear Publishing, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Like many dogs in America today, Miss Chief watches her owner get into a car and leave for work every day. She gets lonely, and she s also curious to find out what her owner, a schoolteacher named Miss Judy, does for all those long hours while she is away. So one day Miss Chief decides to find out for herself. Join her as she is introduced to the wonder of classrooms, the challenge of lessons, the fun of recess, and best of all, the love of new friends. Noreen Hyde lives in Durham, New Hampshire with her family. Inspired by the real story of Judy Caseley, a teacher who did take her dog Miss Chief to her classroom as a reward for her students, Noreen s sister Kathy encouraged her to write a story about such an unusual educational experience. What started as a fun family story evolved into The Adventures of Miss Chief. Noreen and Marisa hope you have as much fun reading it as they had writing and illustrating it! Enjoy, and watch for the further adventures of this mischievous...
