Biennial Report, Montana Game and Fish Commission, State of Montana, 1933 (Classic Reprint)

By Montana Fish and Game Commission

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Biennial Report, Montana Game and Fish Commission, State of Montana, 1933 During the season of 1933 the department paid bounty on 91 mountain lions. The fish and game commission pays a bounty of $25 for each lion killed within the state. These animals are great enemies of wild life as well as domestic stock, and the commission feels that the payment of the bounty is small, indeed, to the return to the sportsmen of the state. It is hard to speak definitely of progress - although the commission has been assured that progress has been made, considering the critical period that the department has passed through with colors flying and increasing support from the sportsmen of the state. The commission has carried on its work - and this is outstanding - it has stayed within its income. There have been curtailments in all departments, but the loyal support and cooperation of all sportsmen in Montana has been most gratifying. Montana is rapidly coming to the forefront as a sportsmen s paradise, not only for those...

Reviews

A top quality ebook and the typeface used was interesting to learn. This can be for all who statte that there had not been a well worth reading through. I am just pleased to tell you that this is basically the very best ebook i actually have go through in my individual life and can be he finest book for at any time.
