Herald Press (VA), United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In a remote valley north of Kabul in August 2010, American peacemaker Dan Terry and nine other aid workers were attacked and killed in an event that made worldwide headlines. Why would one man take his family, follow faith and calling into the political and religious maelstrom of Afghanistan, and through years of war and strife believe he could make a difference? In Making Friends among the Taliban, childhood friend Jonathan Larson retraces Dan s nearly forty years in Afghanistan and, through interviews and eye witness accounts, relays Dan s incredible way of daily living. Facing famine, poverty, prison, and rifle muzzles and across three decades of kings, the Red Army, warlords, the Taliban, and the American-led coalition Dan found improbable friendships across the front lines of conflict and inspired small Afghan communities to find a better way of life. This inspirational narrative of Dan s life and friendships offers a model for living authentically wherever we are.
