

New Selected Poems and Translations

By Ezra Pound

New Directions Publishing Corporation. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 416 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 1.2in. The essential collection of Ezra Pounds poetry newly expanded and annotated with essays by Richard Sieburth, T. S. Eliot, and John Berryman. This newly revised and greatly expanded edition of Ezra Pounds Selected Poems is intended to articulate Pound for the twenty-first century. Gone are many of the stale creampuffs (as Pound called them) of the 1949 edition. Instead, new emphasis has been laid on the interpenetration of original composition and translation within Pounds career. New features of this edition include the complete Homage to Sextus Propertius in its original lineation, early translations from Cavalcanti, Heine, and the troubadours, as well as late translations of Sophocles, and the Confucian Odes. As a lifelong expatriate, Pound parceled out his work to a variety of journals in England, America, France, and Italy. This new edition takes account of this complex publishing history by giving the poems in the chronological order of their original magazine publication. We can observe Pound as he first emerges onto the literary scene in the pages of Ford Madox Fords English Review and Harriet Monroes Chicago-based Poetry, and then as an agent provocateur...
